29th Sunday Ordinary October 21, 2018

Gracious God,
Alpha and Omega,
You make all things new.
In this time and season
of transition,
We pray for our parish family,
The Community of St. Bridget.
May we be
Tireless in our commitment,
Patient in our discernment,
Loving in our communion,
Open in our listening,
And, daring in our faith.
Give us vision,
That as one body, in one faith,
one baptism, one Spirit,
we may grow ever stronger united by the mission you have entrusted to us.
Amen.

World Mission Sunday is October 20-21st.
Bring good news to the poor and light to the darkness of our world.
We are called as a Missionary Church and Universal Church to pray for and support our poorest dioceses of the world. There will be collection envelopes available in the pews.

During the month of October, dedicated to Mary we will be saying a Rosary before Saturday Evening Mass at 4pm, and on Sunday morning starting at 9:00am. Please take part in this combined effort not only for 'us' but for the whole Church and the world. Bring your petitions and we will place them at Mary's feet.

DID YOU KNOW THAT YOU ARE INVITED?
Yes, you would be most welcome to join the gang at Emily's F&M Cafe when they gather for coffee or breakfast. And, certainly conversation. Many people come for both the 8 am Thursday Mass at St. Austin's Campus, as well as breakfast. Or just for breakfast at Emily's: 2124 44th Ave N, Minneapolis.
